("ISR") wishes to obtain bids in the framework of a tender (the "Tender") for the performance of certain works (the "Works"), which include the design, construction, installation, commissioning and maintenance of ETCS L2 on ISR's rolling stock (the "Project"). In this context, ISR hereby invites prospective participants to take part in the prequalification stage of the Tender (the "Pre-Qualification Stage"), prior to the stage of publication of an RFP and the selection of a winning bidder for the performance of the Works (the "Selection Stage"), as detailed in Section 1.2 below.

Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in Section 16 below (Definitions).

- 1.1.2 Without derogating from any other instructions herein, Participants are required to sign and submit Attachment E1 as part of their Submission.

It is hereby clarified that a Participant that shall not submit Attachment E1, duly signed, shall be disqualified.

1.2 The Tender Process

- 1.2.1 The Tender process will be comprised of two major stages:
- (a) Pre-Qualification Stage: the purpose of this Pre-Qualification Stage is for ISR, after having reviewed each Participant's submission (each – a "Submission"), to approve eligible Participants fulfilling all Pre-Qualification Requirements in Sections 4 (Financial Pre-Qualification Requirements) and 7 (Technical Pre-Qualification Requirements) (each – an "Eligible Participant" and collectively the "Eligible Participants"), who will be invited to participate in the Selection Stage. ISR intends to invite all Eligible Participants to participate in the Selection Stage.

- (b) Selection Stage: ISR will publish an RFP and select, among the bids submitted by the Eligible Participants, one winning bid. ISR reserves the right, at its discretion, to conduct negotiations, including with respect to final technical and commercial terms, with those bidders that it finds suitable.
- 1.2.2 The other terms and conditions of the Selection Stage as well as the requirements applying to Eligible Participants participating in the Selection Stage (including, but without limitation, the requirement to furnish a bank guarantee as a pre-requisite for participation in the Selection Stage) shall be detailed in the RFP.
- 1.2.3 ISR is under no obligation to, and Participant shall have no claim against ISR if ISR shall not, publish the RFP, continue to the Selection Stage and/or finalize this Pre-Qualification Stage and/or the Selection Stage and/or enter into the Agreement.

1.3 General Description
